

When you visit our websites, domains and/or products (“Websites”), your data can be collected and stored using cookies. In this Cookie Policy you can read which information is collected and what it is used for (“Cookie Policy”). In addition, we provide an explanation of what you can do if you want to change your cookie preferences.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files that are stored on the hard disk of your computer or smartphone during a visit to the Websites via your browser. Cookies have various functions such as:

- Remembering the login name or settings;
- Your preferences are stored so that you only have to enter this once;
- Tracking surfing behavior so we can optimize the Websites for visitors;
- Content and advertisements can be tailored to your area of interest;

The use of cookies is safe and cookies are never used to retrieve any sensitive personal information such as passwords. The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of these Websites. For all other types of cookies we ask for your permission.
